"I got my new boo dess on, And my pitty feddered hat, And my ban chief in my 'ittle muff That's like Auht Jane's white cat." So Marion went to meeting,
As a rosebud sweet and fair;
She piped up in the singing,
And bowed her head in prayer.

She waved her wee lace handkerchief To her little playmate Grace, And tried to wipe a sunbeam From off her mamma's face.

She threw kisses to a lady Who sat across the aisle Gave Dr. Meade some capanio.
Which made the Deacon smile.

She climbed upon a footstool,
Whispering, "Danma, ain't I tall?
I wish danpa'd look down here,
But then, perhaps he'd fall."

Then Marion went home again And jumped on papa's knee;
"We all have been to meetin'
'Cause we are dood, you see

"And danpa preached: 'A'ittle babe

And men came and div him presents,
And then they made him bows.'"

Mr. Pleasant, Del., April 18th, 1878.

Mssrs. Walton, Whann & Co., Dear Sirs:
Having used your Phosphate for the past 13 years, (though occasionally other kinds) I have made up my mind that yours is as good as the best. In the fall of 1876 I tried your "Acid Phosphate" on my neighbor's, Mr. Henry Clayton's wheat of last Phosphate's own broadcast on wheat drilled in on oast subble, and, although the straw was short, when I came to thresh it, I was agreeably disappointed in the quantity and quality of the grain. Last fall (1877.) I drilled my whole crop of wheat with only 200 lbs of your "Acid Phosphate," and 1½ busbels seed wheat per aefe, and never had my wheat to look finer at this time of the year. I think it is just the fertilizer we want; coming at a reasonable price, and amply repaying the outlay.

Mr. Pleasant, Del., April 18th, 1878.

Being so much less in price than other phosphates, I determined to test it by the side of the higher price phosphate, ocating and the other exists than other phosphates, one at forty-free dollars per ton, and the other at forty-three. No iving man can, at this time, see any difference in the wheat, and I believe, that at harvest, our "Acid Phosphate" will produce as many bushe's of wheat her acre, as any superphosbate manufactured by any firm in the United States.

Messrs. Wallon, Whann & Co.:

With pleasure I here state that your "Acid Phosphate" that I used in the fall of 1876 by the side of another leading phosphates, 20 or united in the fall of 1876 by the side of another leading phosphates of much higher price in neighboring fields I shall use letter results than other phosphates, or other phosphates of much higher price, yielded results as good, if not better, that the table price phosphates, it is not better, that the used the side of mother leading phosphates of much higher price, yielded results as good, if not better, that I used in the fall of 1876, by the side of mother leading phosphates, with it that I used in the fall of 1876, by the side of mother leading phosphates, it is the side of mother leading phosphates, with it that I used in the fall of 1876, by the side of mother leading phosphates of much higher price, yielded results as good, if not better results and out as the side of mother leading phosphates, with it that I used in the fall of 1876, by the side of mother l

SUMMIT BRIDGE, DEL., April 13th, 1878. Walton, Whann & Co., Gentlemen:

For years I have used your Raw Bone Super Phosphate with good results, both for wheat hors speak high and grass. In the fall of 1876, I was induced to try some of your "Acid Phosphate" and was so well pleased with it that I used it exclusively last fall on my wheat, and bids fair to cost, acidalate exceed any phosphate I ever used.

Sr. Georges Ilcndred, very near Middlerows, Del., April 13th, 1878.

Henry Clayton, Eq., Dear Sir:

The other day when about driving off and in a hurry, you asked me my opinion of the different phosphates which we have been using of late years. My answer now, when at leisure, is, that as long as Walton, Whann & Co. maintain the present standard of excellence, I shall use no other than their "Acid Phosphate," it having met my wheat growing requirements better than any other (the once famous Turne: 3 "Excelsior" not excepted), and I do be ieve there is much more wheat in the same amount of money layed out than in any other Super Phosphate on the market. I have not used it for any other grain crop, but hear my neighbors speak highly of its corn growing qualities. Whenever I see farmers carting grain to market in Super Phosphate bags, I know at once they never contained Walton, Whann & Co's, acidulatea Bone, but on the contrary, a good deal of worthless "drier," of no avail in grain growing.

Very Truly Yours, JOSHUA CLAYTON, of Thos.
